Volunteer Opportunities

Volunteers are needed in the Food Warehouse, Clothing Bank, Intake and Daytime Transition Center.

Our mission: To meet the needs of our Lancaster neighbors who can't afford the basics of food, clothing, and shelter for free. Whether you're helping clients directly select clothing, taking a food order to their car, or working to ensure a steady revenue stream to support our services, keeping the needs and dignity of our clients first is paramount. Through collaboration, mutual respect, and a shared mission, we can successfully support those in need.

Days and Hours of operations: Volunteers are generally needed Monday through Friday, any time slot between 8:30 am to 4 pm. We are not open evenings or weekends.

Food Warehouse: Volunteers are needed Mondays, Tuesdays, Wednesday, Thursdays, and Fridays any time slot between 8:30 am to 3:00 pm. Volunteers help with food distribution while the food hub is open for walk-in service. Other duties in the food hub include sorting donated food, stocking shelves for bagging, packing bags, cleaning and bagging produce, packing frozen food bags, wheeling out food orders to recipients' vehicles, taking out trash, and general warehouse maintenance.

Clothing Bank: Volunteers are needed every day any time slot between 9 am to 4 pm. Volunteers needed to sort clothing, place on display racks, accept donations and assist recipients of services during distribution.

Intake/Front Desk: Volunteers are needed Mondays, Tuesdays, Thursdays and Fridays between 9 am to Noon, sometimes a little later. Greet recipients of service, answer the phone, working one-on-one with confidential information/entering information into database, people skills.

Daytime Transition Center: Volunteers are needed Monday - Friday from 12:30 - 4:00 PM to support the staff maintain a welcoming space for those needing our assistance.
